Chart of Kings and Prophets

EXPLANATION

1. This chart represents the period of Israel's history from the crowning of Saul (1043 B.C.) to the captivity of Judah (586 B.C.).
2. Each space between the dotted lines represents ten years.
3. Notice the three main periods: United Kingdom (1043–931), Divided Kingdom (931–722), and Surviving Kingdom (722–586).
4. The reigns of the kings are identified as good (unshaded) or evil (shaded) in the biblical record. At times, two kings reigned simultaneously (e.g., in Israel: Pekah and Hoshea).
5. The names in green are the prophets (including the Twelve Minor Prophets), whose books are indicated: Nahum, Habakkuk, Zephaniah, Haggai, Zechariah, and Malachi.
6. The dates of the kings are those of John C. Whitcomb's chart, Old Testament Kings and Prophets.
